
PROMOTED AT ARSENAL—Fred J. Keller, of Wilmington, is congratulated by Frank Malek, superintendent of major load lines at Joliet Arsenal on Keller's recent promotion to group superintendent. (U. S. Army photo.)

Fred J. Keller Promoted at Joliet Arsenal

The promotion of Fred J. Keller, of Wilmington, to group superintendent at Joliet Arsenal was announced today by Col. Ronald B. Currens, commanding officer.

During World War II, Keller held an important assignment with Stewart-Warner & Co., operators of the Green River Ordnance Plant, at Dixon, Ill.

Since his employment at Joliet Arsenal, Keller has been identified as an industrial specialist in the operations division.

Mr. and Mrs. Keller reside at 421 River Drive, Wilmington, with their two daughter, Carol, 16, and Rosie, 14, students at the Wilmington high school.